PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

I am a dedicated and curious individual passionate about technology and innovation. I have pursued a Diploma in Information Communication Technology. I enjoy exploring new ideas, solving challenges, and continuously learning to improve myself. Whether it's understanding how things work or creating something meaningful, I always strive to grow and make an impact. When I'm not working on something tech-related, you'll find me discovering new interests, learning, and seeking inspiration in the world around me.
